AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Sarah Bernhardt's American tour has been very satisfactory to her. She has deposited $150,000 with her bankers.

The firm determination to lynch Frank Mayo if he tries to play "Hamlet" is heard from all parts of the country.

Mrs. D. F. Smith, the well-known elocutionist, has gone up the Willamette Valley, and will give entertsiuments at various places.

The New York Evening Post says: "The Passion Plays is still a future possibility here, in a building constructed expressly for it."

The Telegram is boldly engaged in an effort to convince its readers that "Buffalo Bill," the noted scout and bad actor, is living in East Portland.

The New York Tribune thinks that nothing has ever happened so propitious to dramatic art in England as the conjunction of Henry Irving and Edwin Booth on the London stage.

Adopting the reverse of Adam Forepaugh's plan, the Sells Brothers, who own a show bearing the modest title of "The Millionaire Confederation of Railroad Shows," have offered $100,000 to the homeliest damsel on American soil.

The entertainment of the Young Men's Catholic Dramatic and Musical Society, to be given on the evening of the 30th inst., will doubtless be successful, as they are making extensive arrangements for the event, and a large number of tickets are already sold.

Miss Georgia Woodthorpe, now the wife of Mr. Frederick Cooper, must have greatly improved since her last trip to Portland, which was made with the huge Bandmann. She has lately been quite successful as a star in the East, and particuarly in Philadelphia.

The big 4" minstrels, who recently held the bards at the Bush-street Theater for six weeks, rawing crowded houses, and who are now in the interior of California, will soon visit Oregon. Following them, it is said, will come the Melville Opera Company, with "Olivette" and "Billee Taylor" as the attractions.

The Odd Fellows of this city and East Portland will give a grand anniversary entertainment at New Market Theater on Tuesday evening next, April 26th, the proceeds to be donated to their "orphan's home and educational fund." A vocal and instrumental concert by Miss Helen Coursen, Mr. M. O. Lownsdale, Mr. Edgar E. Coursen, and others, will be given, the evening's programme concluding with a grand ball. The object is a worthy one, and the proceeds will doubtless be quite substantial.

"The Pirates of Penzance," to be produced at New Market Theater this (Thursday) evening by the members of the Handel and Haydu Society, assisted by Miss Helen Coursen, a talented young vocalist from San Francisco, has been in constant rehearsal for some time past, and is expected to be a greater success than anything yet undertaken by local talent in Portland. The original cos-tumes and properties used in this opera at the Bush-street Theater, San Francisco, have been imported, and the orchestra will be increased to twenty pieces. Besides Miss Coursen, the cast includes Mrs. Wyatt, Mrs. Dobinson, Miss May Prentice, Miss Lizzie Hamilton, Miss O. Ostrander, and Messrs. Lownsdale, Van Beurden, Mc-Claire, Kinross and Trevett, with a large and well-trained chorus. The opera will also be given on Friday and Saturday evenings and for Saturday matinée. A liberal support from the public is predicted for the entertainments.

The foliawing statement of William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the Fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appelite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the Summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half dollar. I expended over $100 in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time that a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable; but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have for the past three years. I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with diseased lungs will be induced to take Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and be convinced that consumption can be cured. I have taken two bottles, and can positively say that it has done more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared, and I shall soon be able to go to work." Sold by druggists.
